

Apprenticeships live

Meet employers and their apprentices through our interactive live broadcasts

Schools in England can access the very latest apprenticeship information directly from employers and their apprentices through the new live broadcast offer. This service is part of the Apprenticeship Support & Knowledge for schools project (ASK) funded by the National Apprenticeship Service.

What is a live broadcast?

A truly engaging and interactive experience for your students and staff. You will be able to speak directly to apprenticeship employers and their apprentices live via the internet and hear about the latest opportunities, the skills employers are looking for, the recruitment process and how students can best prepare themselves for working life after school or college.

How does it work?

Using the link provided the apprenticeship broadcast will stream directly to the device that you are using – whether individual PCs or tablets, an interactive whiteboard in a classroom or a projector in an assembly setting.

How long is a broadcast?

A live broadcast lasts for about 20-30 minutes (including Q&A) – think of it like a flash assembly.

Will I get any IT support?

Yes, the Learn Live IT team will be able to provide technical support to your school/college beforehand.

Make the most of the broadcast

We've come up with four easy steps to make sure your students get the most out of the broadcasts.

- 1 Go to the website and register your school (students do not need to register individually): amazingapprenticeships.com/live-broadcasts/
- 2 Get students excited and engaged - ask them to research the employer and think of questions they might like to ask the apprentices. Questions can be submitted in advance through the registration site.
- 3 Spread the word! Promote the broadcasts to other teachers, parents and governors
- 4 Enjoyed the broadcast? Great! Share your thoughts with us on twitter @apprenticeships
