

A LEVEL HISTORY INDEPENDENT STUDY

- Create a simple definition of 3 new words learnt each week- stick in books
- Find examples of 3 points to include in an answer
- Create an example of a type of question you might get on topic being studied using exam board materials
- Videolink / save video you have found on
- YouTube that is relevant to topics you are studying - top tip add A level /or lessons to your search term
- Use History.Com to find an extra detail about a topic being studied search their site
- Try and find a news story that makes reference to an historical event each week and record /stick in books
- Research University courses in History
- Log on to subject exam board website and read specification- identify areas that you need clarity on
- Look at sample exam questions and the mark scheme, attempt question yourself
- Look at exemplar questions and read examiners feedback