APPLYING TO UCAS

- In order to apply to Universities in the UK, you must apply through UCAS.
- You are permitted to apply to up 5 Universities through UCAS.
- You will need to check the entry requirements of the courses you apply for before submitting an application. For Russell Group University you will usually need a minimum prediction of 3 Bs.
- You are required to submit a personal statements and subject references along with your application.
- When all personal details, GCSE grades, predicted grades and references have been completed you will need to pay (£24) and press send. The application is then submitted to Ms Igbokwe for verification and proof reading before then being sent.

APPLYING TO UCAS

- Within a day or two of receiving your application, UCAS will send you an acknowledgement which you should check carefully – let them know if there are any problems.
- At this stage, your application is made available for institutions to view online, however, they cannot view the other choices you have made. The institutions then make a decision on your application and whether or not they invite you to attend an interview. They have three choices:
 1. They can make an unconditional offer (i.e. they will give you a place irrespective of any future exam results)- Rare
 2. They can make a conditional offer (i.e. tell you what grades you need to achieve in your exams to be given a place)- Most Common
 3. They can reject your application.

APPLYING TO UCAS

REMEMBER YOU HAVE A CHOICE OF FIVE
UNIVERSITIES. USE YOUR TIME AT THE UCAS FAIR
TOMORROW TO CREATE YOUR SHORTLIST.
