What do you like most about Fellgate Primary School?

Base:

- The school works hard to ensure the children from the Base are included in the main school.
- Class trips are enjoyed by the children and there are lots of them.
- Staff give daily updates to parents via Dojo.

Main School:

- The smaller class sizes.
- The support given to the children in the main school with ASD.
- Parent/teacher meetings later in the day so both parents can now attend.

Whole School:

- The school has a community feel to it.
- A small school ensures all staff know all children.
- Staff are very approachable, helpful and friendly.
- Staff care for children as if they are family.
- The Autism Awareness afternoon.

- The Friends of Fellgate group.
- Dojo is a great tool and makes school accessible to all.
- The introduction of after-school clubs.
- The staff work hard to ensure good relationships with parents.

What would you like us to do better at school?

Base:

- More extra-curricular activities for the younger Base children.
- Transport to be provided for after-school clubs.
- More opportunities to meet other parents.

Main School:

- More homework to be given
- More school trips
- More feedback about children's additional needs
- More updates on Dojo
- Children to line up in the yard before going in to school at 8.55am

Whole School:

- Trim trail to be fixed
- More communication in regards to how the school is trying to improve (Ofsted)
- School calendar dates to go out termly
- School to use an online payment system for school dinners
- Make it clearer if some things are just for main school children
