

How do you
communicate online?

Make friends

Don't post photos that have personal information

To follow friends and family

Don't post mean pictures

Try to be safe

Don't send them

Don't send rude photos

To help people

How can we use photos and images to make the internet a better place?

Ask for permission

Keep photos
to yourself

Do good stuff

To show people the appropriate world

Make people smile

Post
things that are appropriate

Don't make fun of photos

Never send or text information about yourself

POST POSITIVE IMAGES

GOOD—I'D FEEL SUPPORTED

Grateful that someone took the time to message/post
a comment

How would it feel to receive a kind, positive message on a

Great

Appreciative

No because someone can find out who you are Sometimes—but it can be dangerous

No because people can see you feelings

No because I don't know how to do it!

NO BECAUSE PEOPLE CAN CHANGE YOUR PHOTOS

Yes but only with friends and family

No because people can know where you live

Yes because it's fun and people can make nice comments

Yes, it's a good way to express feelings

No because people can save the photos

Yes, only if you are safe

Yes because you can catch up and keep up with friends

No because you could get bullied

Do you like sharing photos online? Why or why not?

No, I'm too young

No because I might get nasty comments

No because people will know your details

No in case someone says bad things

Yes because it shows I'm having a good time

Inconsolable

Upset

Anxious

Disappointed

I wouldn't care

Miserable

How would it feel to receive a hurtful message on a photo
you posted online?

Emotional

So sad I would cry.

Stressed

Angry

Sad and make me feel like I'm not good for myself

Worried

Miserable
and I would regret putting the picture on

Nervous

Afraid

Like people don't like me

Sad

Awful
