Careers Guidance

This course develops skills in communicating ideas and making informed judgements. It is suited to disciplines where communication in both speech and writing is paramount. Progression routes include:

- The ability to read carefully, assimilate information quickly and exercise judgement wisely makes Law a natural course to take.
- The ability to listen, assess, and reach decisions about people are all fostered by the course. Literature is concerned with people and consequently makes the Civil Service a natural option.
- Reading, writing, speaking and listening are central to any child's learning. Primary or secondary teaching is a natural and rewarding option.
