

School uniform plays a valuable role in contributing to the ethos of our school and setting an appropriate tone. It instils pride; supports positive behaviour and discipline; encourages identity with, and support for, school ethos; ensures pupils of all races and backgrounds feel welcome; protects children from social pressures to dress in a particular way and nurtures cohesion and promote good relations between different groups of pupils. Above all, we believe that school uniform supports effective teaching and learning.

From September, your child will need:

A polo shirt

The polo shirt can be white, light blue or yellow. They are readily available from most supermarkets, online, via retailers like Amazon, or can also be purchased directly from school with the school logo.

Trousers, skirt, leggings, shorts or joggers

These need to be plain, logo-free and black. These are also available from most supermarkets and online via retailers like Amazon.

Jumper, sweatshirt or cardigan

These need to be royal blue. They are readily available from most supermarkets, online, via retailers like Amazon, or can also be purchased directly from school with the school logo.

Shoes

These should be plain, logo-free and black. These are also available from most supermarkets and online via retailers like Amazon.

Summer Dresses

These may be royal blue or yellow.

PE Kit

A plain white or yellow t-shirt and either royal blue or black shorts. Trainers or sandshoes. They are readily available from most supermarkets, online, via retailers like Amazon, or can also be purchased directly from school with the school logo.
