

International School Award

We proud to announce that St Patrick's have received full International Schools Award. To mark the schools commitment to enriching our pupils' international dimension over the past two years, the British Council have rewarded the school full reaccreditation. Mr Sherrington attended the International Schools Award ceremony, which took place at Tyneside Cinema in Newcastle, to receive the award. The award itself was presented by the Mayor of Durham and Head of School partnerships from the British Council.

This year's guest speaker was writer, BBC presenter, public speaker, and expedition leader, Will Millard. Born and brought up in the Fens, he is the BAFTA winning presenter of the BBC Two series Hunters of the South Seas, The River Taff with Will Millard, and BBC Wales Hidden Cardiff. St Patrick's received a special mention during the ceremony for receiving the award for a fourth year.

The world is a stage for the children at St Patrick's, with the school involved in a wide range of stimulating international activities. St Patrick's has a long and proud history of teaming up with schools, in other parts of Europe, to enrich the curriculum. Giving the children an exciting look at the world beyond their own community. With children and staff often hosting schools and visitors from across the continent here in Thornaby.

