

School is open for:

1. Those children of frontline workers who have no other childcare options.
2. Those who are vulnerable which means a social worker is working directly with the child or family or your child has a EHCP.

If you are coming to school because you fall into the category above you must wear your school uniform.

We urge the community to keep your children in doors in order that we save lives.

